Dearest one,

I do recognize the surprise this confidential letter brings to you, especially as it came from a stranger. It is occasioned by the urgent it demands. However your contact was made possible at your country's journal at the Johannesburg Chamber of Commerce (JCC) in South Africa and after reading through your profile, I became assured of your capability of handling this transaction hence this is for urgent action.

I am Lawrence Kabango from the Republic of Zimbabwe. My father was the Chairman Farmers Association in the Government of Zimbabwean President, Robert Mugabe.

At the midterm of the crisis between the Zanu-pf and Mdc political parties which are still this date, my father thinking fast decided to send me out of Zimbabwe because the fate of our country was yet to be decided. We left Zimbabwe for South Africa with a total sum of US$10.5 Million (Ten Million Five Hundred Thousand United States Dollars), sealed in diplomatic baggage's meant for the purchase of Fertilizer and Machineries from South Africa.

On arrival in South Africa, because am a political asylum seeker, am not allowed to operate a Bank Account so with instruction of my father, I deposited the money in a Security Company Though I did not reveal the content of the baggage to the Security Company nor did I declare the actual content to them, because I wanted to be on a safer side. I told them that the baggage belongs to my foreign affiliate who is the beneficiary of the item.

Unfortunately, because of my father's political and influence he was assassinated.

Since then, I have been looking for a reliable and trustworthy person to help me transfer this money into a foreign account overseas prior to investment in that country or any other conducive country overseas. I got in contact with somebody from Denmark but he became unnecessary greedy concerning his share in the transaction and luckily, I ran into your details and decided to contact you and see if you can be of any help to me.

I intended to share this money (US$10.5Million) as follows:-

1. 25% of the total sum to you if you assist in transferring this money into your account.
2. 5% of the total sum will be set aside to offset all bills and expenses incurred in the process of this transaction.
3. 70% of the total sum will be for my investment in any country of your choice which will also be under your supervision.

Please, note that this transaction is risk free on your side as I have concluded all modalities to aid this transfer.

Should this meet your utmost consideration, please give me your earliest reply through my phone or email above. Kindly provide me your communication facilities for a hitch-free and confidential link (your telephone and fax numbers). Feel free to ask question you consider necessary. The confidentiality in this transaction cannot be overemphasized as I trust and believe that you will oblige me the needed security and attention it demands. Please treat this transaction with absolute confidentiality.

Thanks

Yours faithfully

LAWRENCE KABANGO
