Firstly, thank you for buying this report.

I was thinking of new ideas, when I came across Meebo... and the gears in my brain started whirring.

Meebo is an online chatroom, that has one thing you need to know about it – that is, there are a lot of people online at any given time and a lot of them are from the USA. Meaning that it is a goldmine for CPA offers, and this is where you make money.

I'm going to talk about two ideas in this report – now, the first idea is one that is common, and I made a few hundred with it. The second idea though... I have never seen anyone talk about it before, and I've made a killing – so why don't you?

It is time for you to game Meebo for cold, hard cash.

Firstly, you need to signup with a few CPA networks that have dating offers – I recommend Never Blue Ads and Rocket Profit. I have been paid by both.

<http://www.neverblueads.com>

<http://www.rocketprofit.com>

You are looking for offers that are easy to signup for (one page form) but also offers that pay well. I usually got $4 - $5 per lead, for users from the USA.

Time for method one 😊

Method 1: Dating Affiliates

This is not a new method, however at the moment there are very few people doing this on Meebo – it is so unsaturated you can make a lot of money.

The key is to pretend to be a hot girl and talk to guys... you can make an easy $50+ a day doing this.

It does require a little bit of work, however you will make money if you put in that work.

The idea is that you go to Meebo, join rooms with more than fifty users – put your username as a common girl's name, say "Cindy" for example.

Then you post in the main conversation window that you are looking to talk with guys and maybe even cam with them... you'll instantly start getting PMs from desperate guys.

Now, while a lot will be from the USA, some will be from countries that are useless for leads – India, for example. The first thing you should do when someone messages you on Meebo is ask for their "ASL" (Age, Sex, Location).

If they are not from the USA, block them. If they are however, you should continue talking to them.

Whatever their age is, and whatever their location is just choose a slightly different one – for example if they say they are in California, say you are in New York and vice versa. You can choose to be a couple years younger or a couple years older – it is up to you.

The key is to go in quick – you don't want to waste your time. After the ASL, immediately ask if they have a webcam. If they don't, block them; if they do, keep talking.

You want to show that you're interested in doing webcam, but can't use websites or things like MSN because they're too slow. Here's a direct example of a conversation I had:

jake: hey babe asl?

Cindy: hi xx 21 f ny u?

jake: 23 f cali

jake: wt u up to?

Cindy: i wnt to cam, lol

Cindy: u have one?

jake: ya msn?

Cindy: cnt use msn, dnt work here. i use a cam site, u a mمبر?

jake: err.. no

Cindy: oh, too bad. we culd cam there jake: ah... free?

Cindy: ya, free – im broke :P

jake: haha ok give me the link

Cindy: <http://affiliateprogram.com/afflink>

jake: okay im signing up one sec

* Blocked *

Rinse and repeat. You want this to take a short time as possible.

Another thing you can do is get the really desperate guys to sign up for many websites – for example, pretend it doesn't work.

 Continuation of another Conversation **

Cindy: PM me there after you signed up

Cindy: my username is sxcqueen

Tim: okay

Tim: it can't find you

Cindy: what? give me ur username i'll pm u

Tim: tim861

Cindy: it cnt find you – u sure you signd up correctly?

Tim: ya... maybe it's the site?

Cindy: hmm maybe. i use 2, wnt to try the other one?

Tim: sure im bord

Cindy: <http://affiliateprogram2.com/afflink>

Tim: okay one sec

 Blocked **

You can setup multiple names in multiple rooms under multiple browsers (I used to use three usernames in three rooms, two in Firefox, one in Internet Explorer). The great thing is that you don't have to signup to start talking, and you can be a guest (with a personalized name).

Doing better than normal

Now most guys are going to be skeptical about free dating websites... you can make them more eager to signup by showing them a picture of a hot girl.

You can usually get pictures of hot girls from the rooms themselves (get from Room A, use in Room B and vice versa) but if you cannot you can get it from somewhere else.

Do a Google search or if you're lazy, go to <http://tinypic.com/images.php> and find a picture over there – there are quite a few available for you to use.

The key is doing this in bulk... and blocking the guys that waste your time.

Method 2: Targeted CPA Offers

This is actually a variation of another method, but you can use this method to rapidly make money 😊

The good thing about Meebo is that it has some “targeted” rooms which are about a specific topic – and most people inside that room will be interested in this topic.

For example, the Lupe Fiasco room, which has 60 people online as I write this – it's a good guess that a lot of them like Lupe Fiasco.

Now, you need a domain name for this – something like pickandwin.com or timetopickandwin.com

You get the idea.

Now, what you need to do is go into a room and talk about the subject (if it a football team, talk about that). You can also make your own room about a topic of your choice (but choose one that will be popular like politics – the USA 2008 elections for example).

Now set up a page on your website, a simple page asking for people to vote to win something. You need to choose something that teenagers would be interested in, like I used iPod offers which worked well. For example, in the Lupe Fiasco room I could ask people to compare who was better, Lupe Fiasco or Ludacris.

Obviously most people will choose Lupe Fiasco, however even if they don't, you still make money.

Who's the better singer?

Vote and Win an iPod Nano

Alicia Keys and Beyonce. Two women that have wowed audiences all across the globe with the amazing talent for singing. But which one of them is the better singer?

The choice is yours. Vote now to decide which singer comes out on top - you choose who you want to win. To make it sweeter, we'll give you the chance to win a free iPod Nano - to have a chance of winning, enter in your email address on the next page.

Here is an example of a page I setup. Both options linked to an iPod offer through my affiliate link, so I did not care what people chose.

You can get a good design for a page like this at www.oswd.org. After you talk to people in the room, say something like:

"LOL a friend of mine just found a website asking who's cooler, Lupe Fiasco or Ludacris. Haha losers. What do you guys think?”

After that, post the link which will be something like www.postandwinstuff.com/lupefiascovluda

Also mention about the free iPod – again, you need to repeat this in bulk for you to make money, in many rooms with many related offers. You need to make the offers related, which means you need to create a page on the website for each offer.

Just for an example, I went into a room about racing that had around 80-100 people in it at the time. I picked an offer that paid $1.8 for a short form submit and asked people which they thought was the better car (Dodge Charger or Chrysler 300C).

In the next ten minutes after I posted the offer, I had almost fifty people sign up making me $82.8 for ten minutes of work. How cool is that!

Conclusion

You will have to do this in bulk if you want to make some serious money – I spend thirty minutes a day on the first one and maybe an hour or two a day on the second one.

I also started using more than Meebo, as Meebo has a limited number of rooms – here are others you can use:

<http://chat.yahoo.com/>

<http://www.spinchat.com/>

<http://peopleconnection.aol.com/>

<http://chat.aim.com/>

Just Google search for “online chat rooms”. Obviously dating chat rooms work better for the first method.

Good luck and if you need any help just send me a private message 😊
