

Hello FGMTV,

Monday, 4th October 2010

I've just took the time to look by curiosity at adecadeofcourage.com website. Maybe I got the explanation why ntdtv do no more reply to any of my mails relative to this subject:they sell a dvd from the shortfilms!

What is suprising is the fact that they broadcast the videos as well in HQ, excepting the five, the freedom satellite.

I - My questions are:

1. What is your position on this?
2. Do you succeed to get the 6 packs?
3. Do want the 4th shortfilm as well ?
4. Do want the 5th shortfilm as well *?

II - My proposals (on what We can do according to this):

1. What about posting only flv files and redirecting to the dvd website.
2. If you look on amazon website,notice that DVD is Region 1 (U.S. and Canada only)
3. I assume it's only english dubbed. What about putting all subtitled versions online?)

III - My needs:

1. Please let met know how you will handle files on fgmtv,
2. Tell me when (fgtmv's related stuff as well) some are available on fgmtv.org
3. I think would be nice to update fgmtv.net to reflect changes:
 - a) make new links to fgmtv.org so these releases are public,
 - b) relinking the files .avi.001 to .avi as well

Thanks for taking the time to reply to each of this subjects and refers answers with numbers. I am just using the law, using my level of awareness, to clarify this.

Note:

*For this last, Shifu Li said the problem was solved in the ntdtv jingwen (as far I can remember) so we no need to insist. optional.
