

To whom in many concern

BRUCE WAYNE

Bruce and I spend a lot of time when he was living in China. He was the only child of the richest family in Gotham. Unfortunately, his childhood was marked by the death of his parents. This fact marked him, producing a deep change on his character. His friends told me that he was a sensitive and curious boy who spent all day playing with his friend Rachel (in fact, Rachel told me that). But, after the death of his parents, he became a depressed child. Finally, after being expelled from three universities, he decided to turn his life completely and travel around the world without money.

In that time, Bruce's temperament was strengthened. He spent great hardship at that time, seeing the worst face of human beings. However, he learned to make quick decisions in stressful situations, so he is a resilient person. On a social level, he exhibited leadership qualities, that made him to be the leader of the gang. I can confirm that he has always creative solutions when any difficulties arrive on the scene. And, a year ago, he returns to home.

Unfortunately, I regret having to say anything negative about Bruce but he has an assertive temperament. This strong temperament makes him to have several problems with his social environment. On the other hand, I think that it may be a useful quality when caring for child. Moreover, his background may not be the best ones for this kind of job. I sincerely think that it is a mistake. This background makes him to have a persistent character, which is one of the best features that a caregiver may exhibit.

For the reasons I have given I have no reservations in supporting this application for Bruce. I think that his strong temperament can be inspiring for the children and, in turn, children may be good for improving the social skills of Bruce.
