

Waldemar Pawlak

Minister of Economy
Deputy Prime Minister of the Republic of Poland

16 November 2007, appointed Minister of Economy by the Prime Minister.

Born on September 5, 1959 r. in Model, Mazowieckie.

He graduated from Warsaw University of Technology, Faculty of Automotive and Construction Machinery.

In 1992, and in the years 1993-1995 he served as Prime Minister.

Since January 2005, Chairman of the Polish Peasant Party, the party also led in the years 1991-1997.

Since 1989 Member of the Parliament.

In 2001-2005 - President of the Warsaw Commodities Exchange.

From April 1992 - President of the Volunteer Fire Brigades.

Since 1984 he has maintained 17-hectare farm in a village near Pacyna Stonewa.