

WoodExpo 2011

Seaport World Trade Center - Boston - February 24 thru February 27

Rules and Eligibility

Goal

The goal of the WoodExpo is two fold:

1. to recognize excellence in Furniture Design, Creativity, and Furniture Construction and
2. to educate the buying public as to what high quality custom made furniture is.

Eligibility

- All project entries must have been built between Sept. 1, 2010 and January 1, 2011. One in-process photo must accompany submittal. Accepted participants will be notified Jan 22, 2011.
- An accepted craftsperson must confirm attendance at the WoodExpo by Jan. 29, 2011
- All projects must be produced using a majority percentage of solid wood. A project incorporating natural veneer and inlay techniques on a wood by-product substrate must also include solid wood in the object's construction.
- Those craftsman accepted to exhibit at the WoodExpo are required to be present at the WoodExpo venue and to bring an educational/teaching tool that will be used to aid in educating the attending public to techniques used in high-end furniture fabrication.

- The OPEN CATEGORY- the object must be a furniture type, i.e.: chair, sideboard, étagère, chest-of-drawers, etc. The majority and dominant material used must be wood. Mixed materials encouraged. Looking for the WOW factor. Number of selected pieces TBD.
- The CREATIVE CATEGORY - Theme is – Let's Plant the Seed
A furniture form must germinate to the following design constraints:

Functional Constraint is STORAGE

Dimensional Constraints cannot exceed 38x18x53 inches

Constructional Constraints demand the object must have at least 2 drawers and 1 door.

Only 10 pieces will be accepted into the Creative Category.
