

GOOD DAY!

Compliment of the Season.

I am very sorry for contacting you in this unsolicited manner, please don't consider my mail as spam. If this mail meets you in a Good condition then I will want you to take your time and go through my message.

My names are Ms. Fatima C. Taylor, I am the daughter of Ex-president Charles Taylor of Liberia, I have been in South Africa for few years now going to school, Just recently I graduated from the University as an engineer and my mother disclosed to me that my father who is currently on trial in The Hague has deposited some funds few years ago, in my name with a security company here in South Africa.

The Consignment box which my father deposited in the Security Company has Spendable Cash in US Dollars bills amounting to the sum of $16,000,000.00 USD, which the management of the Security Company does not know the content of the box. My father told them it is family valuable. All the Original documents covering the fund are with me.

1. My reason for contacting you now is for you to stand as my foreign partner, so that you can make claim of the consignment from the Security Company over to your country so that I can come to you and then you will assist me invest my funds in a profitable business in your country. I and my little brother Junior Taylor are currently in South Africa hence seeking for your honest assistance. If you are interested in assisting me, I am willing to offer you 20% from the total fund (16 Million USD) for your kind assistance.
